ALEXANDRIA, VA. THURSDAY EVENING, AUGUST 12, 1909.

PRICE 2 CENTS

The Badge of Honesty

Is an every wrapper of Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery because a full list of the ingredients composing it is printed there in plain English. Forty years of experience has proven its superior worth as a blood purifier and invigorating tonic for the cure of stomach disorders and all liver ills. It builds up the run-down system as no other tonic can in which alcohol is used. The active medicinal principles of native roots such as Golden Seal and Queen's root, Stone and Mandrake root, Bloodroot and Black Cherry bark are extracted and preserved by the use of chemically pure, triple-refined glycerine. Send to Dr. R. V. Pierce at Buffalo, N. Y., for free booklet which quotes extracts from well-recognized medical authorities such as Drs. Bartholow, King, Scudder, Coe, Ellingwood and a host of others showing that these roots can be depended upon for their curative action in all weak states of the stomach, accompanied by indigestion or dyspepsia as well as in all bilious or liver complaints and in all wasting diseases where there is loss of flesh and gradual running down of strength and system.

The "Golden Medical Discovery" makes rich, pure blood and so invigorates and regulates the stomach, liver and bowels, and through them, the whole system. Thus all skin affections, blotches, pimples and eruptions as well as scrofulous swellings and old open running sores or ulcers are cured and healed. In treating old running sores, or ulcers, it is well to insure their healing by applying to them Dr. Pierce's All-Healing Salve. If your druggist does not happen to have this Salve in stock, send fifty-four cents in postage stamps to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., and a large box of the "All-Healing Salve" will reach you by return post.

You can't afford to accept a secret nostrum as a substitute for this non-alcoholic, medicine of known composition, not even though the urgent dealer may thereby make a little bigger profit.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate and invigorate stomach, liver and bowels. Sugar-coated, tiny granules, easy to take as candy.

The Alaska Exposition.

Seattle, Aug. 12.—Owing to the fact that Thomas Nelson Page, the well-known southern short story writer, and Henry Waterson, editor of the Louisville Courier Journal, were unable to come on August 10, the committee in charge of the "Dixie Day" celebration at the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific exposition has changed the date to August 24. The southern Dixie societies also preferred the later date, as at the time they will be able to have a larger representation at the exposition. The programme of the day has been arranged with many brilliant features. At 2 o'clock, in the natural amphitheatre, addresses will be made by prominent southerners, including Mr. Waterson and Mr. Page. A musical program is also planned for the afternoon under the direction of Mrs. G. A. O. Rochester, who will arrange a regular old southern concert.

From 4 to 6 o'clock in the afternoon, the Daughters of the Confederacy will hold a reception and serve tea in the Washington state building; at 8:30 in the evening a reception and dance will be given in the Washington state building. Prominent southerners in Seattle who have large mint beds offer to assist in serving mint jellies to all comers if the committee desires. Claude U. Ramsey, of the Virginia Society, has been put in charge of an office to be opened in the New York building and to him are to be addressed all communications regarding the plans. William Hickman Moore, ex-mayor of Seattle, is one of the prominent members of the committee.

HOADED A FORTUNE.

Peter Leibach, of Pittsburg, Pa., supposed to be a demented, has been discovered by the police to be the possessor of a fortune, which he hid about his house and lived in the greatest poverty.

Trunks full of coin, stockings full of bills, washboilers full of nickels, dimes and pennies, estimated at $100,000, were loaded into a patrol wagon and taken to a deposit bank by the police. Up to quitting time last night fully $40,000 in cash had been counted, and the job is not half finished.

Every corner the men looked into they found money. One trunk measuring three by two by one and one-half feet proved to be so heavy the men could not lift it. When opened they found it jammed with silver and copper coins.

A further search revealed two trunks, a small one, and a larger one, both filled. A wash boiler was filled with money of small denominations. By opening boards where the officers found mysterious figures they found other hoards.

A box filled with nickles was hidden away under a bed. Several bank books were discovered showing deposits of thousands of dollars. Until two years ago Leibach and his brother Andrew lived in the hotel. One day Andrew shot and killed himself. How the men accumulated so much money is a mystery, as their only occupation was peddling herbs.

FIRE IN A TUNNEL.

Fire which started yesterday morning by a spark from a steam shovel in the timbers of the roof is now burning furiously in the interior of the tunnel on Water street, Lynchburg, which for three years past has been in course of construction for the belt line of the Southern Railway. The tunnel is 1,300 feet long, and in places is over 100 feet below the surface. In the false work in the tunnel 1,500,000 feet of lumber and probably 50,000 cords of wood have been used, and it seems now as though most of this would be destroyed. Several fire companies entered the tunnel and fought the flames with streams of water, but the strong current of air fanned the flames so that the men had to leave. It was then proposed to dynamite a section to check the fire and keep it from the part of the tunnel not damaged, but at this juncture there was a serious cave-in, which divided the fire and made approach to it absolutely impossible. The greatest danger to be feared is from further caving in as fast as the timbers are burned, for the tunnel runs under Rivermont avenue, a much traveled highway, and also under Water street, a residence section. The fire may burn for weeks. At midnight the contractor succeeded in securely closing both entrances to the tunnel, and believes that by cutting off the supply of air the fire is being slowly extinguished. He is sanguine of success.

BATTLE WITH A PYTHON.

Gas Lambrigger, the baker shown of Orville, Ohio, had a terrible experience with a python yesterday, in which he received severe injuries. The python is 28 feet long, 20 inches in circumference and weighs about 400 pounds. The reptile got out of its cage and when Lambrigger tried to drive it back it attacked him and wound itself about his body and began to crush him. He called for assistance, and it required the efforts of seven men who beat the reptile nearly to death, to release its hold. Lambrigger is badly bruised, but fortunately the prompt efforts of his assistants kept the reptile from crushing any bones.
